ATTACK PLANE Drills and Calisthenics To Be MARKED WITH DAILY ROUTINE FOR GUARDSMEN SOVIET STAR During Stay at Local Armory

Unusual Flurry of Post-Midnight Activities at State Department Following Report of Incident

RUSSIAN BODY FOUND

Washington, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The United States declared today that a bomber marked with the Red Star of Russia was shot down after attacking United Nations naval forces off Korea.

In an unusual flurry of post-midnight activity, the State Department called the incident to the attention of the U. N., under whose flag U. S. and other forces are fighting off the Communist invasion of South Korea.

It was the first time this government has charged direct Russian participation in the fighting around Korea.

(In Tokyo, both British and American officials said they knew nothing of the official announcement in Washington. A British aircraft carrier and supporting units are operating off the Korean west coast, but British naval officials said the incident had not been reported to Tokyo.)

The State Department said that one body had been recovered from the twin-engine bomber and that it had been identified from papers as a lieutenant in the Soviet armed forces.

Formal notification was immediately handed to U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie and to Sir Gladwyn Jebb of Britain, this month's Security Council president.

The department located the incident "approximately" at the 38th parallel, which is the boundary between North and South Korea. The brief announcement did not pinpoint the action above or below that parallel.

Thus there was no indication whether the Communists regarded as their own. It was on the west coast, which borders on the Yellow Sea south of Communist Manchuria and east of Red China.

The state department said the bomber "identified only by bearing a Red Star" passed over one of the outer ships in a U. N. formation and headed toward the center "in a hostile manner."

PRODUCER DIES

Bradford, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Solemn requiem mass will be sung at St. Bernard's church Thursday for William J. Healey, 76, prominent Bradford oil producer who died Sunday at Memorial Hospital in New York. Healey founded the Healey Petroleum Corporation which he headed until 1948 when he sold his interests to the South Penn Oil Company of Bradford and the United Refining Company of Warren.

Variety Show Attended By Over 1,000 Brings to End Sheffield Celebration

...if you're so smart—why don't you look in the Times-Mirror Want Ads for a job!

As of 12:01 a. m. today, the full personnel of Company I, 112th Infantry, of Warren, is on active duty in the armed forces of the United States, according to orders received here. It is expected that formal induction ceremonies and reading of the orders will take place during the day at the State Armory on Hickory street. Lt. Robert Greer is the commanding officer.

Lt. Edwin Bliss and nine enlisted men have been on active duty at the Armory for the past week, organizing the administration of the Company, and three new appointments have been made.

Donald L. Blair has been appointed a second lieutenant; Lawrence O. Schuler has been upgraded to warrant officer; and David A. Dies is now acting first sergeant.

Personnel of the Company who reside in Warren will continue to sleep at their respective homes, but will report for duty at 6:15 a. m. each day. Those who live outside of Warren will sleep at the Armory. All will form and march to Oscar's Restaurant, on Chestnut street, for meals.

Curfew will be enforced and men will be assigned to MP duty, Lt. Bliss said, and there will be guards on duty at the Armory at all times from now on. There will be daily calisthenics and drills.

It is expected that at least five days will elapse before the men are ordered to report to Camp Atterbury, in Indiana. Whether they will be transported by rail or truck is not known at this time.

If the Company is still in Warren by Sunday evening, a service is planned at First Lutheran church with Rev. Edward K. Rogers, pastor of the church, and himself a chaplain of the First Division in World War II, to conduct the services. Rev. McCurtis W. Allison, assistant pastor of the church, is chaplain of Company I.

More Than 500 Persons Lose Lives In Violent Accidents Over Long Weekend

More than 500 persons were killed in violent accidents over the Labor Day holiday—one of the biggest tolls on record.

Traffic fatalities were under the predicted total, but as usual the heaviest toll was in motor mishaps.

At nation-wide survey showed 512 killed in accidents from 6 p. m. (local time) Friday to last midnight—a period of 78 hours. This figure was under the record breaking toll of 550 over last Labor Day, but above the previous high record of 428 in 1937.

Of the total, 361 were killed in traffic accidents. The National Safety Council, in a pre-holiday statement, estimated the highway toll would be 455 unless motorists used extreme caution. The highways were jammed with millions taking trips on the last long weekend holiday of the summer. The traffic toll last Labor Day was a record 410.

Sixty-five persons drowned and 87 others lost their lives in accidents of miscellaneous nature—including airplane crashes, fires, falls, etc.

Heaviest tolls were in New York, Texas, California, Virginia, Wisconsin and Illinois. In Con-

Nephew of Local Woman Is Slightly Injured In Action

Mrs. J. W. Hansen, Lexington avenue, has received word from Meadville that her nephew, First Lieutenant Paul Swanson, has been "slightly wounded" in Korean action.

The young army officer, with nearly nine years of service to his credit, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Swanson, Neason Hill. His father is a brother of Mrs. Hansen and a former Warren resident.

His service in World War II included 30 months' duty at Guadalcanal. Mustered out at the end of the war with a captain's rank, he re-enlisted with master sergeant's rating and has since been advanced to his present rank.

He went to Japan in February of this year and was joined there in July by his wife and three-year-old daughter, Karen. Sent to Korea, he landed there July 18, assigned to the 99th Field Artillery, which has been serving with the First Cavalry Division.

Holiday Weekend Is Rather Quiet One For Police Dept.

One motor vehicle accident of major variety, and one minor accident, in addition to the usual routine calls, marked a rather quiet holiday weekend in police circles.

At 7:06 p. m. on Saturday, police were called to Fourth and Hickory streets when a car operated by Joseph M. Elinski of Erie, struck a parked car owned by William J. McGuckin, 412 Fourth avenue. According to the report, Elinski was proceeding east on Fourth when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Joseph Elinski suffered multiple lacerations and abrasions of the forehead and was treated at Warren General Hospital. Elinski sustained a small cut on the inside of his mouth, but was not treated at the hospital.

Damage to McGuckin's car was estimated at $200, and to Elinski's car about $250. There were no arrests.

The minor crash occurred at Pennsylvania and Liberty on Saturday afternoon. There were no injuries and no report filed.

Also on Saturday afternoon, police unlocked a door for a Prospect street resident who had locked herself out of her home.

Early Sunday morning a local man and his kilt friend engaged in a combat after leaving a local club, with the result that the girl friend was knocked out. Police took her to Warren General Hospital for emergency treatment, and then booked both on disorderly conduct charges. They paid fines and costs to Justice Tracy M. Greenlund.

At 9:15 a. m. Sunday, police on patrol came upon a car owned by an out of town driver, which was burning on Pennsylvania avenue, east, near South street. A plank, bolted to the rear bumper, had become ignited from the car's exhaust.

HOME COMING: Shown in this Times-Mirror photo is part of the large crowd which attended the 20th annual Elk Township Homecoming at Scandia Labor Day. The Mission Church Ladies Aid served lunch, after which there was a Farmers Parade, a water battle by the Russell Volunteer Fire Department, a sports program and a ball game.

Labor Day Brings Wage Boost at Ford Plant and Possible End of GE Dispute

By The Associated Press
Labor Day 1950 brought a welcome wage boost to Ford Motor Company workers yesterday and an agreement by CIO Electrical Workers to call off a strike scheduled for today.

The electrical workers accepted without reservation a government proposal—based on the hope of averting a defense production cutback—to mediate a dispute over wages with the General Electric Company.

Ford workers won a new five-year contract, carrying a wage boost which union officials estimated would mean from $45,000, 000 to $50,000,000 yearly to some 126,000 workers.

Labor's annual holiday also produced the usual flow of oratory—some of it keyed directly to workers' problems and others calling on all citizens to gird for a struggle against Communism.

The dispute with General Electric had threatened to affect 46 or more GE plants and 180,000 workers—only about a third of them members of the CIO Electrical Workers Union. Some 37,000 members had been called upon to strike today.

President Philip Murray of the CIO told a Birmingham, Ala., audience that labor will give full support to the nation's fight against Communism, but he said workers "do not intend to be the goat onto whose shoulders big business will pass its rightful share of the common burden."

Speaking at Chicago, President

Local Man Ordained At E. U. B. Meeting

The Rev. Roger D. Morey, pastor of Bethel Evangelical United Brethren church, was returned to the local charge at the 97th annual session of the Erie conference of the denomination, held at Findley Lake over the weekend by Bishop J. Balmer Showers, Harrisburg, presiding bishop of the area.

Also returned to his charge in Youngsville was Rev. Harold Lundquist, beginning his fourth year. Mr. Morey takes up his third year's work in the local church.

Among five men ordained at this year's conference was the Rev. Leo Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hansen, 112½ Lexington avenue, who is serving a church at Steamburg, N. Y. Accompanying his parents to the ordination ceremonies were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clark, Mrs. Margaret Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Huber and daughter, Carolyn. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hansen, all of Warren.

ARRIVE FROM ITALY
Mrs. Earle G. Flohr and her son, Thomas, of Conewago avenue, arrived home yesterday morning from a two months' trip to Italy. The two landed in New York City Friday night aboard the SS LaGuardia, American Export line, having left Naples August

William Green of the AFL pledged full support in the Korean war effort, which he said is "merely the opening skirmish of a global struggle which may break out into open warfare at any time."

John J. Lewis of the United Mine Workers said at Coaldale, Pa., that the Taft-Hartley law "makes a second-class citizen out of a man who belongs to a labor union." He said the right to strike cannot be taken away "without making the individual a serf to live under adverse conditions."

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower called on Americans to "get tough" because they face a "bitter and probably prolonged struggle" with Communism. Speaking at Denver, the wartime commander of Allied forces in Europe said: "We must get tough—tough with ourselves."

CHECK TO HELP PAY LOCAL POLIO COSTS

A check for five hundred dollars to help pay for medical care of local polio patients has been received by the Warren county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis according to C. Henry Nicholson, chapter chairman. The funds were provided by national headquarters of the March of Dimes organization. A heavy case load from the 1949 epidemic, in addition to the costs of this year's expenses has exhausted the local chapters 1950 march of dimes funds, the chairman declared. At present the Warren county chapter is providing funds for the care in whole or in part of three patients afflicted this year and is continuing to pay costs for the care of 6 stricken in former years.

OIL MAN DIES

Services in memory of William J. Healey, 76, prominent oil producer of the district, who died in a New York City hospital Sunday night, will be held Thursday morning at nine o'clock at St. Bernard's church, Bradford, and burial will follow in St. Bernard's cemetery.

Boro Schools Reopen Wednesday For Term

Warren borough schools will open sessions for the 1950-51 term tomorrow morning. According to a statement by Dr. Carl Whipple, Junior High School classes will be run continuously from 8:30 a. m. to three p. m., while the elementary schools will start at 9 a. m. and convene again at one p. m. The kindergarten classes will be held in three two and one-half hour morning sessions and the same in the afternoons, starting at nine a. m. and one p. m. A full staff meeting of professional employees was held at one o'clock this afternoon in the Beatty auditorium, followed by a meeting with the principals at the various schools.

Super-Bargain Day in Warren Thursday

The fourth Warren Super-Bargain Day sale will be held on Thursday of this week. This sale is a one day event arranged by the Retailers Committee of the Warren Chamber of Commerce, and is held on the first Thursday of each month. Wednesday's paper will contain two pages of ads for this sale, and the 40 stores participating have agreed to offer their best bargains of the season for this one day only. This "First Thursday of the month" promotion was inaugurated in June by the Retailers Committee, for a 2 month trial period, but according to Ben Kinnear, Chairman, and Nevin C. Wolfe, sub-chairman of the Sales and Promotion Committee, it was decided at their last meeting to continue these sales throughout the rest of the year. It will be worth everyone's time to read all 40 ads appearing in Wednesday's Times-Mirror.

Army Asks Draft of 70,000 in November

Washington, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The Army today asked for a draft of 70,000 men during November. This raised the total draft call to date to 170,000, all for the army. In earlier calls the army asked for 50,000 men in September and 50,000 in October. The Defense Department said today the Navy and the Air Force do not plan to ask for draftees in November. Both services have been building up their manpower with volunteers and by the recall of reserves.

HEARING DATE SET

A hearing has been set by the Warren county court, for September 12 on a motion to dismiss the complaint against the election of Michael R. Papavero as Democratic chairman of Warren county, which was filed last week.

Allegheny National Forest Sets a New Record for Sale of Timber in the Area

The largest known timber stand improvement sale on any eastern forest was announced here today by U. S. Regional Forester W. S. Swingle. The operation will remove 21 million board feet of timber from Allegheny National Forest in Northwestern Pennsylvania over the next ten year period. The McMillen Lumber Company of Sheffield was the successful bidder. The most interesting feature of this Allegheny sale is not so much the size, but the cutting for economic use of large numbers of trees whose removal will stimulate better growth to remaining stands. Foresters have long advocated this type of operation particularly in the characteristic black cherry

Threats of Twin Drives Upon Taegu and Pusan Are Reported In Late Communist Successes

By The Associated Press
Northern Front: Communist drive threatens to force withdrawal of Allies all along northern front. Reds crack northeastern wall, posing threat of twin drives on Taegu and Pusan.

Naktong River Front: U. S. troops take and lose strongpoint 12 miles north of Taegu. Marines and infantry advance two miles on central sector of western front.

Southern Front: U. S. 25th Infantry mops up remnants of trapped Reds.

Air and Sea War: Rain grounds U. S. planes, hampering Allied defense of northeast line. South Korean naval units report sinking 20 Communist transport vessels off east coast.

Washington: U. S. charges plans bearing Red star of Russia shot down in attack on U. N. vessels off Korea. Says body of Soviet lieutenant recovered from plane. Incident brought to attention of U. N.

Late Success: U. N. Security Council prepares to take up U. S. resolution condemning North Korea, after Soviet tactics blocked action for month of Russian presidency.

Tokyo, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Red Koreans cracked the northeastern arm of the 120-mile warfront to night and threatened all Allied forces dug in the mud on the north.

AP Correspondent Ben Price reported at 8 p. m. (3 a. m. EST) the break in the center of the Allied flank near the Kusan coast had developed into a dangerously fluid threat that could force withdrawal of the whole northern front.

A U. S. 8th Army communique at 7 p. m. (4 a. m. EST) said the North Korean breakthrough was wide and by a force of unknown strength.

Today's Department of Defense lists from the Korean campaign, four Pennsylvanians killed in action, six missing and ten wounded, including the name of one man from this area: Cpt. William E. Gibson, son of Ernest C. Gibson, 23 West 6th street, Oil City.

The communique said the main penetrations were at Kigye, nine miles northwest of Pohang, and across the Pohang-Yongchon road, which connects Taegu with the east coast.

Maj. Gen. I. L. Kwon Chung, South Korean army chief of staff, said mortar fire fell on Yongchon Monday night. Yongchon is 20 miles east of Taegu.

On other fronts Allied troops held or advanced and took a heavy toll of the North Koreans.

In Washington the U. S. state department announced a twin engine bomber marked with a Soviet Red Star was shot down as it attacked United Nations naval vessels. (Turn to Page Five)

Business Places In Many Towns In Area Victims of Clever Check Forging Racket

Forged checks, amounting to approximately $3500, and printed to simulate payroll checks of the Beyer Construction Company, of Warren, have been cashed in Meadville, Oil City, Bradford and DuBois during the past week, it was reported to city police by the Warren National Bank when the bad paper began arriving here from the Pittsburgh clearing house last Tuesday.

According to Lt. Mike Egan, of the Warren police, none of the checks have been cashed locally, as far as is known, but were given for small purchases in jewelry, drug and department stores in the neighboring towns.

The checks are well printed on a fine grade of watermarked paper, and resembled the checks of the Warren firm. However, the account of the Beyer Construction Company is carried in the Warren Bank and Trust Company, and not in the Warren National Bank.

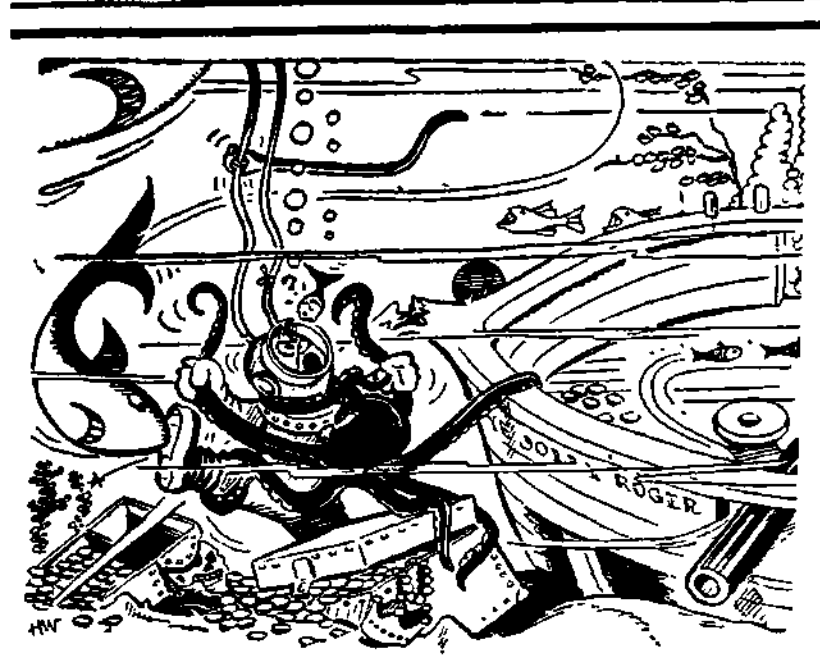

Sixteen of the checks were cashed in Meadville, five in Bradford, seven in Oil City, and eight in DuBois. All were for either $99.80 or $58.72.

Chief of Police Gibson and County Detective Holt, of Meadville, were in Warren on Saturday conferring with local police and following up leads. Lt. Egan said this morning that he has no knowledge of any arrests having been made as yet.

WARNER TOMORROW

Pittsburgh, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The weather bureau advised western Pennsylvanians today to keep an extra blanket at the foot of the bed. A nippy 40 degrees is forecast for tonight. That's two degrees chiller than last night's low of 51. The thermometer is expected to climb to a comfortable 72 degrees during the day tomorrow. Clear skies will accompany the fall temperatures.

Garden Club At Youngsville Plans Meeting on Sept. 12

Youngsville, Sept. 5—The date of the September Garden Club meeting to be held at the home of the Anderson Sisters in Pittsfield has been changed from the date previously announced in the club calendar. The meeting which promises to be most interesting will be held on the 12th instead of 5th of September. Youngsville Fair week will be a busy time for a number of the members of Garden Club who are helping in various ways at the fair as well as being exhibitors. Garden Club members be on hand for the dinner-meeting to be held at Anderson Sisters, Pittsfield, Tuesday, Sept. 12, a week later than previously announced.

WCS NEWS

The evening group of the Women's Society of Christian Service met Thursday evening, Aug. 31 at the home of Mrs. Grace Shipe. A new devotional book was used by Miss Edith Husted at this service bringing a timely message. Mrs. Nellie Anderson had charge of the program. It was decided to use in this group the approved study book, "Near East Panorama", by Gloria M. Wyssner. A number of the women of Youngsville WCS heard Dr. Wyssner tell of life and her experience in the near east where she served as missionary director of a girl school, as a teacher and evangelist.

She now holds the position of secretary on the near East for the International Missionary Council. The afternoon group of the Youngsville Women's Society Christian Service Friday, Sept. 1, held a one o'clock co-operative dinner meeting at the home of Mrs. H. H. Husted. Mrs. John Carr presided at the business meeting which followed the dinner. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. R. H. Knapp.

The program included echoes from the Chautauqua Mission Week. There were several present who had been at Chautauqua during the Mission Week and could report on some of the interesting sessions. On Oct. 6 a joint meeting will be held at the Methodist church with the WCS officers of the two societies as the committee. Orange Circle will meet Wednesday Sept. 6 at the National Forge Club House with Mrs. Springer as hostess and Mrs. Kellerman as co-hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dairymple of Oblong, Ill., and Mrs. L. R. Rogers were guests of the Anderson sisters of Pittsfield on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Conklin and sons were weekend guests of relatives in Meadville.

Miss Betty Husted returned Saturday from her month's camping experience at a Girl Scout leadership camp near Pleasantville, N. Y.

Mrs. Laura Casey is back from a visit in Ohio where she was the guest of Mrs. Della Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Wimer and family are spending a week-end vacation with relatives and friends in Meadville and New Castle.

BANKS ARE A NECESSITY

A bank is as much a part of the equipment of any business as its office furniture.

Any business could keep all available funds in ready cash in the office, but the risk would be unwarranted. The same applies to individuals who keep money in their homes.

For this and other reasons you need the services this bank renders.

Election Is Held
By Sugar Grove's
Firemen Auxiliary

Sugar Grove, Sept. 5.—The Women's Auxiliary of the Sugar Grove Volunteer Firemen, had a special meeting and elected two officers to complete their slate of officers. Mrs. Clifford Storms was elected chairman and Mrs. Kenneth Frank, sunshine committee. The women will assist the firemen in their refreshment tent at the fair and a committee of Mrs. Donald Barrett, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. Clifford Storms and Mrs. Scott Stuart, Jr., will arrange the work schedule for the women. Everyone in the community is asked to contribute pies or cakes to be sold at the stand.

Girl Scout Troop 6 had an all day picnic and swimming party at the new pool on the Busti-Sugar Grove road. Some of the girls rode their bikes and Mrs. A. A. Grant and Mrs. Paul Jerome provided transportation for the others. Mrs. Dorothea Taylor, troop leader, accompanied them. Mrs. Jerome, who has served as leader for the past year has resigned on account of moving to Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lacey and family, have returned from a trip to State College, where they attended the American Soil Conservation Association meeting and then went on to Harrisburg, Gettysburg and other places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jerome and family, have moved to one of the new apartments on the Hunt Rod Road, Jamestown.

Miss Jane Abbott has returned to Erie, after spending the past month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carlberg, who have been spending the summer at the Carlberg farm, have returned to St. Petersburg, Fla.

The appearance of the Free Methodist church on Main street, has been improved with a new paint job, with the pastor, Rev. L. L. Adams, doing the work.

Mrs. Lelia Frodelius, who has been staying at the Pressey home since giving up her home here, has gone to Jamestown to make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Mispaw and family have returned to their home at Bridgeville, Del., after spending several days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mispaw.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Littlefield and daughters, and Mrs. Louise Nienhaus, of Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilcox, have moved into the Jones farm, formerly the John Anderson farm on the Jamestown road.

Ralph McCain and James Palmer, of Jamestown, left Monday for Buffalo, having enlisted in the U. S. Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Storms are on a Canadian vacation trip. Men worked most of the night on Tuesday, when the Mayer Construction Co., who have been working on the Warren road, tried to load a large piece of equipment near the borough line and it went off the skids and partially blocked the road for traffic. The heavy roller was badly damaged.

Bob Andersen, member of the Sugar Grove Fire Company, received injuries to his ankle which x-rays showed to be a cracked bone in the ankle, at the Porter fire Tuesday evening.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
New York, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Price-happy Australian wool growers have American weavers and suit makers worried. With fleeces selling in the Sydney auctions at prices 40 to 50 per cent higher than last June, it looks now as if you'll pay around $5 more for next spring's suit, maybe more than that the following fall.

The spectacular wool price rise even worries the Australians. Merchants there are quoted in today's cables as predicting clothing prices down under will rise by 30 to 50 per cent. As a result, some gloomily foresee the day when synthetic yarns will gain more of a beachhead in the land of wool. And the American government is believed to be watching the wool auctions closely because of its coming need to outfit a larger

STARVED BLOOD!

Certa - Vin Enriches Your Blood With Iron; Builds Stronger Nerves With Vitamin B; Relieves Gassy Stomach; Try This New Formula for Only a Few Cents a Day. Get It At Widmann & Teah Drug Store.

If you feel weak and look pale, you may have "Starved Blood." Science tells us that too little Red Coloring Matter in the blood slows down energy and takes away the healthy looks of many people.

Some victims scarcely know what is wrong with them. They feel like they are tied to a log every time they try to do something. Their blood cells are shrunken or faded-out. This is BLOOD STARVATION. Such persons wonder why they fail them—why they have to be half-sick and half-well—why they can't have their full share of energy.

Such discouraged people will now find—in CERTA-VIN—two liquid elements that regenerate Red Blood Cells. This new formula is taken before meals and WORKS WITH YOUR FOOD. Thus your food digests faster and better, with less gas and bloating, so you get the fullest good out of your meals. Soon your watery blood is enriched with Iron and your nerves are energized with Vitamin B. Your red blood count goes up, and you feel better all over.

Benefit comes quickly, usually within 3 or 4 days. And the price of CERTA-VIN is reasonable. You can actually take this new medicine for a Few Cents a Day! So if you are a victim of blood poverty, gassy stomach, or lack of vitality, don't go on suffering. Get Certa-Vin at Widmann and Teah (formerly Harvey and Carey).

military force. Reports have persisted that Washington officials have been seeking to induce the Australian government to sell the U. S. government a stockpile of wool which could be doled out here to American mills working on military orders.

Russian buyers became a factor in the Australian auctions two years ago, bidding prices up and taking large quantities of high grade apparel wool. Russians bought 33 million pounds there last year.

European buyers at the Sydney auctions are reported particularly anxious lest Russian and American competition this year might send wool prices above the point where British and continental mills can operate profitably. At the Bradford, England, wool market prices have advanced by 20 to 40 per cent in two months.

American clothing makers say that the jump in Australian wool prices won't show up in this fall's suit, because most of them have already sold out their full production for fall and have the wool on hand to meet these orders. At present prices the wool in the usual $50 suit comes to about $5.50. Labor costs accounting for most of the rest.

The time table of the expected price rises will go something like this:

1. Australian wool prices will be set in the next few days and weeks at the auctions. On the basis of the first day's auction price hike of 50 per cent, a top grade of apparel wool which brought $1.08 a pound last year and $1.76 at the end of June, would sell at $2.64 today. However, this particular grade has not yet been offered at the auction and the bales of around 500 pounds each. This month it reports that stock has fallen to 484,000 bales.

Meanwhile, apparel type wool consumption in the United States, which was less than 300 million pounds a year before the war, is expected to be between 450 and 485 million pounds this year. Wool production in the United States has fallen steadily until we now produce only about 40 per cent of our needs here and must buy much of it from Australia. NEW CHAPTER IN GUARD HISTORY

A new and important chapter in the long and distinguished history of Company I and the 28th Infantry Division of the Pennsylvania National Guard was written this morning when the local unit, along with others in the outfit, was inducted into federal duty, at the State Armory.

The induction ceremony was strictly military and informal in nature, with each member signing a general order that mustered him into Federal service.

The call to the colors constitutes the second time Company I and the 28th has entered active service in the last decade.

On Feb. 17, 1941, a little more than two months after Pearl Harbor, the Division entered Federal service as a strictly Pennsylvania outfit. It went overseas in October, 1943, and did battle in some of the most bitterly fought campaigns of World War Two.

Replacements reduced the ranks of Pennsylvanians as the war went on but the Division never lost its identification with the Keystone State.

It was the Germans who dubbed the outfit the "bloody Bucket Division" due to the Red Keystone shoulder patch worn by the Americans. The Nazis had reason to know what the shoulder patch meant—for the 28th was the first invading unit to enter German soil in force in nearly 150 years.

Although the 28th was organized as a division only in 1917, some of its units date their history back to pre-Revolutionary days.

Divisionary organization for Pennsylvania first was introduced by Maj. John F. Hartman in 1878. Hartman implemented many military reforms as governor of the commonwealth.

The name "Iron Division" stuck to the PNG unit after Gen. John J. Pershing, learning of the outfit's valiant deeds in France, declared its men "must be made of iron."

When alerted a month ago, the 28th had some 10,000 members. It has grown since then due to a recruiting campaign. Its exact number now is a military secret.

BACK TO SCHOOL

Tomorrow morning approximately 3,050 students in the borough and hundreds more in other rural sections will start the 1950-51 school term.

All buildings have been repaired and renovated during the summer for the new term.

During the term all schools will be engaged in activities in which parents and the public can give support—athletics, plays, exhibits, socials, demonstrations, etc. The presence of parents and families at these projects is encouraging to young people who participate, and appreciated by the faculty.

In previous issues of the Times-Mirror assignments have been printed and all pupils have been advised where to report and who their teacher will be. These preparations have been so well organized by the officials that no confusion is anticipated, and Warren students will doubtless be following a well-regulated routine before another day or two.

THINK YOU'RE IMPORTANT?

Somebody said the other day that even if we get going on construction of A-bomb shelters, we may not be able to erect enough to take care of everybody. In that case, this gentleman suggested, we would have to classify people according to their importance to the nation.

The idea opens up some interesting vistas. Who's more important to the war effort, Betty Grable or a federal judge? You won't find any judges' pictures among the morale-builders pinned up on a G.I. barracks wall.

Down at the low end of the scale, we might find some types having to struggle to get on any list at all. For instance, who's going to lobby for a seat in a shelter for a writer of singing commercials?

Can you imagine the popularity of the classification committee? "There go the executioners!" is what you'd hear daily from the shelter rejects. Tough assignment.

It is a source of much gratification to be able to report that the county again has a clean slate so far as serious accidents are concerned over the long three-day holiday weekend.

Too many people go to the movies to forget everything—except not to talk out loud.

Saving for the rainy days is swell—if you have enjoyed the sunny ones.

Here And There

The highlight of the Youngville Community Fair being held Wednesday through Saturday will be the White Horse Revue, direct from the famous White Horse Ranch at Naper, Neb. This marks the first appearance of the world's most beautiful white albino horses in this part of the east. These beautiful horses featured in the White Horse Revue have attracted nationwide attention and last fall, Life Magazine devoted many pages to a pictorial story of the animals and their trainers. Those youngsters who do such marvelous riding have been practically raised in the saddle, so their skill comes naturally.

At White Horse Ranch every colt is taken in hand at an early age and is taught all of the usual "high school" routines. All "graduates" of the ranch school are trained to every conceivable gait. They kneel for the rider to mount. They bow to their rider and to the audience, stand at attention, cake walk, park walk, do dance steps, mount and balance on a high pedestal, pivoting with front feet; play dead, pick up a handkerchief and wave it, ring bells, carry baskets, walk on hind legs, walk and trot in reverse, teeter-totter and do many other amazing tricks. The show carries its own band which provides a colorful background of music for all of the show.

Everyone will enjoy the star performer of the show, "White Wings," a highly trained albino stallion and the most valuable animal on the White Horse Ranch. In addition to the horses, there will be albino cattle and dogs, all trained to the high perfection possessed by every animal that leaves the ranch.

The youngsters will love Bozo, the sad-faced clown. At the rate he is going Bozo will undoubtedly be the most famous clown in America—sad face, glad face or any old face.

This year the show has been greatly augmented by the addition of high class novelty acts, music, singing and comedy, and a unique modern setting has been provided, with special lighting effects.

The show is clean, clever entertainment from the start to finish and is educational as well. Those who have seen it declare it the most enjoyable show playing the fairs. It will be featured at the fair Wednesday evening, Thursday afternoon and evening.

This And That: For the first time since 1912 the Erie Catholic Diocese went a whole year without the death of a priest, Rev. J. S. Gorman, chaplain of St. Joseph's Academy in Titusville was the last to pass away according to diocese figures. Dr. John Utley, of Erie, and Dr. Richard Parks McKeesport, both formerly of the State Hospital staff, were two psychiatrists who examined Charles Dodge, of Corry, charged with murder of Mrs. Ann Buddie, North East pharmacist, and reported that they had found the accused hopelessly insane. A number of area residents attended the Wattsburg fair during the weekend. Heavy rain Thursday cut down the attendance by 3,000 persons over the Thursday of fair week in 1949. Residents of the borough and county who have visited Hershey will be interested in the announcement of a community-wide observance there September 13, in honor of the founder of the model community, M. S. Hershey. Lowell Thomas will be the principal speaker. Although a little belated we would not want the announcement to go unmentioned in this column concerning the change in the undertaking business of Bracken & Keating in Corry. For over 24 years, since this writer has been coroner of Warren county, our official duties repeatedly have brought us in contact with morticians in Corry where we have always had the same whole-hearted cooperation that has been received from all morticians in Warren borough and county. We have known and worked with Charley Keating for almost a quarter of a century, and there has never been a time when he was too busy to give us the time, service and sage advice gained from his years of experience, in helping to clear up the numerous cases that have brought us in contact with him. Olin Bracken, who becomes the sole owner of the firm, along with his two sons, Robert and Olin, Jr., has also been most helpful through the years, and will prove worthy successors to a firm that has a well-established reputation as one of the outstanding mortuaries in the state. WASHINGTON COLUMN

Matthews' Explosive Speech Slipped by Defense P.R.O.

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—When Navy Secretary Francis P. Matthews made his famous speech at Boston, saying that the United States should be willing to achieve a world at peace, "even at the price of instituting a war to compel cooperation for peace," people began wondering who had written it for him. The answer seems to be that he wrote it himself, and didn't tell anybody about it.

The secretary had been at his home in Omaha the week before he was to make the speech. He drafted it there. He came back to Washington, turned his copy over to the Department of Defense Public Relations Office for copying and press releases, then went on to Boston and delivered it.

The Public Relations reviewing officers didn't catch the importance of it, and let the wild ball roll right between their legs. They didn't even bother sending it to Undersecretary of Defense Steve Early for review. It didn't even occur to them.

LACK of stand-by price and wage controls which could have been put into effect immediately after the Korean war began is having a marked inflationary kick-back. Fear that wage controls will be imposed later is causing numerous union labor leaders to institute increased wage demands now, while the getting is good. This was motivating factor in recent Packard Motor strike. It was also a factor, though not the whole reason, for Railway Trainmen and Conductors decision to strike and force a show-down now.

AFL President William Green recently went to the White House to tell President Truman that unions would have to have a 13 per cent wage increase. He said living costs had gone up 13 per cent since the Korean attack began. Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumers' price index, however, shows cost of living up only 2.3 per cent from June 15 to July 15. Preliminary report on change from July 15 to August 15, for food alone, is a drop of 5 per cent.

One big new question is whether any wage freeze is possible under the long-term, sliding-scale contracts now in effect at General Motors and Chrysler.

PENTAGON briefing officer at press conference the other day read a communique to the effect that North Korean industry had been reported being shipped off to Manchuria.

From the back of the room, a reporter remarked, "Why, Colonel, I thought you told us a couple of weeks ago that all North Korean industry had been destroyed by American bombers!"

By getting his $100 million loan from the World Bank, Australia's Prime Minister Robert C. Menzies side-stepped having to make any promises that U. S. firms with frozen profits in Australia would be able to convert them to dollars. Mr. Menzies negotiated this loan on his recent visit to Washington. If he had done business with the U. S. government or its Export-Import Bank, convertibility of dollar earnings in Australia might have been made a condition to granting the credit.

U. S. Treasury's savings bond division will step up its sales campaign about Nov. 1. A new poster has been prepared for the effort. It shows an American flag with the slogan, "NOW—Let's All Buy Bonds." This won't be a formal bond drive like the Liberty Bell campaign earlier this year. There won't be a dollar-volume sales goal. Purpose of the new sales effort will be to help absorb overtime pay and increased earnings resulting from greater employment and higher defense production. By soaking up some of this surplus cash, in savings, it is hoped to reduce in some measure the inflationary threat resulting from greater supply of money in circulation.

REPEAT PERFORMANCE—Federalizing of Company I at the Armory today was a repeat performance for these three local men, (l. to r.) Sgt. Dean Linder, Sgt. Earl Rossman and Sgt. Robert Benson. The trio was with Company I in World War II when it left for Indiantown Gap on February 17, 1941, and all three saw service overseas. They remained together until the point system for discharge came up. They were with units in France, Luxembourg, Holland, Belgium and Germany, and Rossman was wounded twice, once during the battle of the Hertzin Forest and again during the Battle of the Bulge. They re-enlisted in Company I when the unit was reorganized in the fall of 1947. (Times-Mirror Photo)

Two Fatalities In Jamestown District

Jamestown, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Motor vehicle accidents claimed two lives in Chautauqua County during the three-day Labor Day weekend as holiday fatalities throughout the nation hit the 500 mark.

Jay Cherry, 66, of French Creek (Route 4, Corry), died at 1:30 p. m., yesterday of injuries received when a panel truck he was driving lost a wheel and plunged down an embankment about 10:30 a. m. on the Clymer-Cutting road, about a half mile east of Cutting.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Edwards said Cherry was driving toward Clymer with his wife, Myra Wallace Cherry, when the left rear wheel of the vehicle fell off.

The truck left the highway, overturning as it went over a steep embankment, throwing Cherry from the cab. Mrs. Cherry was treated for bruises and shock, but was not hospitalized.

The accident followed by two days the death of 2-year-old David Lasser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Lasser, 164 Broadhead Avenue. David died shortly after a car, driven by his father, backed over him as he was playing in the driveway at the Chautauqua summer home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Lasser.

Allegheny National Forest Sets Timber Sale Record

or other commercially profitable products. This integrated operation will result in the removal of use of some smaller and crowded trees along with mature stock and the salvage of sound portions of trees that previously have been left in the woods as waste.

As is the case on all timber sales from National Forests the trees to be removed will be carefully selected and marked by trained foresters. Black Cherry will be the principal species cut, making up nearly three-fourths of the operation. The balance will be maple, hemlock and other species common in the area.

The new sale will contribute importantly to the maintenance of the timber industry and its profits and employment in the national forest area. About the time it closes out, ten years hence, the composition of the forest will be improved to the point where increasing supplies of mature timber can be counted on to assure a healthy and sustained timber economy in the area.

Another very significant by-product of the sale is the fact that the lumbering operations will open up the forest crown and encourage a type of growth that will increase the wildlife food producing capacity of this area. Specially trained observers report that the deer herd even now is in excess of the number that the natural food supply can be expected to properly support.

The increased browse growth that will follow the lumbering will help solve this problem. This in conjunction with the very timely two-day deer season that has been scheduled for this fall should result in a better approach to a proper balance between the numbers of deer and the carrying capacity of the range. The final outcome will be a herd of healthier and larger deer, and a situation in which the foresters can plan on the natural reproduction of the choice hardwood timber species. Such has not been the case with the over-stocked deer range of the past few years.

N. Y., Fran Talerico of Bradford and John Zandi, Sheffield. The MC also performed with acts of juggling.

Sunday evening the Vets sponsored a community vesper service at the playground as part of their program. The Rev. Juvenal Lalor OFM, president of St. Bonaventure University, Olean, N. Y., was the guest speaker and his Labor Day-inspired talk was received most enthusiastically by the crowd of over 200 persons.

The Rev. Hans Pearson of the Bethany Lutheran church presided over the vesper service and commended the Vets for including an hour of worship in their week-long schedule of events. The invocation was given by the Rev. E. D. Pulse of the First Methodist church and the benediction by the Rev. Pearson.

Several selections were sung by the male choir of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic church. The audience also sang several hymns: "Faith of Our Fathers" and "Abide With Me". "Past Falls The Evening" and also "God Bless America."

Highlight of Saturday evening's events was the beautiful display of fireworks provided by the Vets.

Four Firsts Are Recorded at Track

Four track "firsts" were set over the weekend at the Dickey-Ben Speedway in Starbuck. Three of the new marks were recorded Sunday. They included a new high on paid attendance, 905; a new high on entries, 31; and a new record time of 13 minutes for the 20 lap feature, set by Bob Allen, leading point-maker at the track.

The fourth record was set Labor Day by Eddie Norris, driving "O-Jo", who became the first local driver to win the feature race. Eddie was out in front all the way, outdistancing such cars as No. 24 driven by Bob Thompson of Brocton; the Buick "Eight Ball" driven by Emory Mahn, and No. 6 7/8 driven by George Nelson of Bradford. Bob Allen's "K-9" dropped out with a broken fuel line, and Bob Rumbaugh's car dropped a wheel on the east turn.

Just before the feature event, Cub airplanes were used by Bub Maier, Everett Stoke, Randy King, Dick Arnold and A. Peterson in a simulated "dive bombing" maneuver, with the pilots dropping flour sacks on a target.

Threats of Twin Drives Upon Taegu and Pusan

sis off Korea Monday. The announcement said the body of a Russian Lieutenant was recovered by a destroyer.

American and British officials in Tokyo said they knew nothing of the incident. A British carrier and supporting craft are operating in the area. But British naval officials said no such incident had been reported in Tokyo.

A slashing rain blotted out normal Allied air support of ground troops all along the winding battleline, which runs from the east coast westward 45 miles to Waegwan and then turns south to the coast.

Twelve miles north of Taegu the U. S. 1st cavalry division pulled out of a walled hill-top citadel near Tabu under North Korean fire.

U. S. Marines and the 2nd infantry division assaulted no-name ridge 22 miles directly south of imperted Taegu.

On the extreme southern anchor of the long battleline the U. S. 25th division, chewed up what was called a sizeable force of Reds trapped west of Masan, port city 27 airline miles west of Pusan.

The eastern sector ground fighting was called a serious threat to Taegu by a Tokyo spokesman for General MacArthur.

In that bitter struggle, an integral part of the five-day Red drive on all fronts, American and South Korean troops attacked Angang, a no-man's land south of Pohang, main Allied east coast port above Pusan.

The few Allied fighters able to penetrate the rain clouds were sent to the eastern sector to aid the fighting men on the ground.

Some bombers went out on a limited number of sorties.

The Reds were deeper into the Allied perimeter than they had been able to penetrate before.

They had cut the Pohang-Taegu highway in force.

General MacArthur's summary said regrouped defensive forces had been unable to stop the advance.

Significant Day In Career of Famous Keystone Division

Harrisburg, Sept. 5.—(P)—Pennsylvania's 25th Infantry Division was inducted into active federal service today with a call from its commander to train "for real combat wherever it may be."

"This is a significant day in your career," Maj. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, told division officers as they entered federal service at temporary division headquarters here.

"We don't know how long we're in for," Strickler said. "We're now a unit of the Second Army." The Division is under orders to report at Camp Atterbury, Ind., by Sept. 15 for advanced training for service in Korea or elsewhere. The changeover from inactive state service to active federal duty started a new chapter in the illustrious history of the National Guard Division, which has had units in every war in American history.

The induction ceremony of division officers was simple and without fanfare. Col. James C. Mackey, Palmyra, chief of staff under the army's order federalizing the famed National Guard unit and the roll of officers was called.

The induction scene was duplicated in armories across the state as other units of the infantry reported for active duty. They will remain at their armories until they receive orders to go to Camp Atterbury.

Brig. Gen. T. Linus Hoban, Seaford, assistant division commander, will lead an advance party into Camp Atterbury tomorrow, leaving here by plane with a 20-man billeting detail.

The Division quartermaster detachment was ordered to leave here later today to join the 25th Quartermaster Company at its Altona home army for a truck convoy trip to Indiana tomorrow.

Five officers or enlisted men from each division unit will leave tomorrow by motor convoy to prepare the huge southern Indiana base for the division.

JANET ELIZABETH BEARDSLEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Armour Beardsley, of Warren, was married Saturday, September 2, to Richard Norrie Prince, son of Judge and Mrs. S. Victor Prince, New London, Conn., in a five o'clock ceremony in First Presbyterian church. The ceremony, performed by Dr. Robert S. Steen, was followed by a reception at the Woman's Club.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of cream satin and Belgian lace panels, with illusion neckline and long, lace sleeves. Her fingertip veil from a rosepoint cap and she carried a colonial bouquet of fleur d'amour and baby's breath.

Mrs. Frederick A. Beardsley, Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Neilan, New London, sister of the bridegroom, and the bride's cousin, Helen Beardsley, Nyack, N. Y.

Judge Prince was best man for his son, while ushers were John P. Beardsley and Dr. Frederick A. Beardsley, brothers of the bride, and V. Stuart Ward, Jr., and Frank DeS. Brady.

Mrs. Prince attended Smith College and was graduated from Hood College in Frederick, Md. She is with Ellington & Company, advertising agency, New York City.

Mr. Prince is a graduate of Middlesex School, Concord, Mass., and Yale University, where he was a member of Chi Psi. He is with Radio Corporation of America in New York and is a member of the Yale Club of New York. He served with the Marine Corps in the last war and is a first lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserves.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. A. R. Kassauer, Larchmont, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Frazier, Canandaigua, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Colin Hitchman, Rushland, Pa.; Walter Beardsley, Nyack, N. Y.; Mrs. Mary Kelley, Agnes Casey, New London, Conn.; Mrs. T. Flannery, Margaret Flannery, Berlin, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson, Helen Arnold, New York City.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD H. KING.

Wearing white Chantilly lace and given in marriage by her father, Lois Ann Newgreen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Newgreen, 104 Russell street, was united in marriage on Friday with Donald H. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. King, Tidouite.

The ceremony was solemnized at 8 p. m. in First Lutheran church, Rev. Edward K. Rogers reading the single ring service in a setting of palms and baskets of white glads. Candelabra held white tapers on the altar.

Mrs. Dorothy Engstrom, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompaniments for Mrs. Everett Borg, contralto, whose numbers were "Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love".

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown fashioned with cathedral train, fitted sleeves coming to points over the hands and the lace of the bodice continuing in a panel down the skirt's front. Matching lace and seed pearls trimmed the white satin Juliet cap which held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. Completing her costume was a bridal bouquet of ervatamia with maline.

Attending her as matron of honor, Mrs. William Colter wore gold satin with net overskirt and matching satin gauntlets, and carried a cascade arrangement of yellow roses and turquoise carnation-tufts which matched her headband. Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. William Linson, Greensburg; Mrs. Arthur Graham and Barbara Nichols. Their gowns were of turquoise satin with net overskirts and headbands.

matched their cascade bouquets of yellow roses and carnation-tufts.

George McKown, Tidouite, was best man for Mr. King and ushers were William Linson, Jr., Greensburg; William Berlin, Buffalo, N. Y.; James Covey, Syracuse, N. Y.; Robert Cain, Pittsburgh.

Wearing floor length frocks of symphony rose and aqua crepe, respectively, Mrs. Newgreen and Mrs. King chose white accessories and white rose corsages for accent.

The reception followed immediately in the church parlors, with 250 guests from Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Syracuse, Rochester, Jamestown, Bradford, Allegany, Franklin, Smethport, Mt. Jewett, Greensburg, Tidouite, Youngsville, Omaha, Neb., Lakewood, Sheffield, and San Jose, Calif.

White glads and dahlias were used in appointments for the bride's table, where aunts of the couple, Florence Hansen, Warren, and Mrs. John Monroe, Tidouite, presided. Mrs. Marshall Morrow served the five-tier wedding cake, aides were Mrs. William Berlin and Kathryn Stowe, and the guest book was in charge of Marlene Swanson.

For a wedding trip through the New England States, the bride chose a pink suit, black velvet accessories and an orchid. They will return September 9th, to be at home at 20 Russell street.

Mrs. King was graduated from Warren High School in 1946 and is employed in the business office of the Bell Telephone Company. She has been honored with prenuptials by Mrs. William Weaver and Kathryn Stowe, and the guest book was in charge of Marlene Swanson.

Saturday Nuptials Are Solemnized For Carol Ann Pasco - Arden Pangborn

A double ring ceremony performed at 3 p. m. Saturday in the Cable Hollow Evangelical United Brethren church, united in marriage Carol Ann, daughter of Archie D. Pasco, Akeley, and Arden Pangborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pangborn, Russell.

The Rev. A. J. Vrooman, Stillwater, N. Y., performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with glads and candles, and Mrs. Vrooman sang several special selections.

Wearing a long white organdy dress, styled with peplum and dotted with tiny bows of white satin ribbon, the bride carried a colonial style bouquet. She was given in marriage by her father and had as her maid of honor her niece Betty Catlin, Jamestown, N. Y. Her long frock was of pink satin and her bouquet was of colonial style, also.

Glen Pangborn, Russell, was best man for his brother and ushers were the bride's brother, Robert W. Pasco, Jamestown, and William Martin, Russell.

Mrs. C. E. Carnahan, sister of the bride, chose white accessories with dark green, and Mrs. Pangborn wore blue.

The reception followed at 4:30 p. m. at the Carnahan home, 9 Willey street, Warren, with guests numbering about 60 relatives and close friends. Summer flowers were used in attractive decoration throughout the home and the bride's table was centered with a tiered wedding cake flanked by white candles. Joyce Kerrigo, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book, with Mrs. Clarice Pasco cutting the cake, Dorothy Schuyler pouring and Janice Gage and Janet VanCise as the aides.

Following a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Pangborn will return September 7, to be at home to friends at Akeley. For going-away the bride chose a blue and gray suit, blue accessories and the corsage which centered her bridal bouquet.

Graduate of Warren High School in this year's class and now employed by the New Process Company, the bride was honored with a shower party given by her sister, Mrs. Cecil Holt, Jamestown.

Mr. Pangborn, alumnus of the local high school in the Class of 1949, is employed by Sterling at Jamestown.

MR. AND MRS. LYLE G. SNAVLEY

Against a setting of palms and baskets of white gladioli and pom-poms, the wedding of Lillian L. Rustau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Rustau, 6 Averill street, and Lyle G. Snavley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snavley, Pleasant township, was solemnized September 2 in First Lutheran church.

The ceremony was performed at seven o'clock by the Rev. Edward K. Rogers, pastor. Mrs. Dorothy Engstrom, organist, played traditional bridal airs and accompanied Mrs. Melba Philo, Buffalo soprano, who sang "Wedding Prayer" and, as the couple knelt at the altar, "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with Peter Pan collar, inserts of imported Chantilly lace, long sleeves, and a cathedral train. Her veil was of illusion net with hand-rolled edge, falling fingertip length from a coronet of lace and seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, pom-poms and baby's breath with white streamers.

Attending her as matron of honor, her sister, Mrs. Alberta Jackson, wore a gown of American Beauty rose satin with net overskirt, matching colonial hat and mitts. Her colonial bouquet was of yellow roses, white pom-poms and baby's breath, with yellow streamers. The bridesmaids, DeLeo Reiff and Mrs. Patricia Yaegle, were lovely in green satin gowns in the same design as the matron of honor's, and carried similar bouquets.

Flower girls were Patricia Highhouse, niece of the bridegroom, and Deann Reiff. They were dressed in green and rose taffeta respectively, with Peter Pan collars, small, puffed sleeves, and full skirts over hoops. They also wore matching hats and mitts and carried miniature baskets of fall flowers.

Completing the bridal party were William Yaegle as best man; J. Carl Peterson, Tom Offerle and Russell Jackson, ushers.

The bride's mother wore navy with gray accessories, and a corsage of red roses and white pom-poms. Mrs. Snavley had a like corsage and navy accessories with a navy print.

The reception for 200 guests followed at the Stoneham community house, with baskets of glads and pom-poms used in decoration; the bride's table was centered with mixed pink and white flowers. A five-tiered cake was served by Mrs. Robert Soderberg, Mrs. Louis Highhouse and Dorothy Nelson, pouring, and Mrs. Carl Peterson passing the guest book.

Out of town guests were from Detroit, Mich.; Syracuse, Jamestown and Buffalo, N. Y.; Cleveland, Ohio; Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Venus, Erie, Tidouite, Russell, Youngsville and Sheffield.

Later in the evening, the couple left for a wedding trip through Canada. For traveling, the bride chose a red gabardine suit with black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Graduate of Warren High School in 1945, the bride is employed at Reliable Furniture Company. Honoring her at parties were Mrs. Patricia Yaegle, Mrs. DeLeo Reiff and Mrs. Beverly Hoden; Mrs. Helen Rose Olson; her sewing club; Mrs. Kathryn Moll, Mrs. Doris Peterson and Mrs. Lois Highhouse; and Mrs. Russell Jackson.

Mr. Snavley, alumnus of Warren High also, graduated from Edinboro State Teachers College in 1950 and is taking graduate work at Penn State. He served with the Air Forces in World War II.

Mable Eleanor Morse Saturday Bride Of Charles William Horner, Youngsville

Mable Eleanor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morse, 106 Main avenue, became the bride of Charles William Horner, son of Mrs. Marjorie Horner, 222 North Main street, Youngsville, at 4:30 p. m. Saturday in First Methodist church.

The Rev. Wayne Furman performed the ceremony in a setting carried out with palms and white gladioli and tapers in seven-branched candelabra. Aisle pews were marked with white palms, tied with white satin bows.

George Johnson was at the organ for traditional wedding airs and Joseph Guilfré, Jr., sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride chose a princess model of white satin, with which she wore a fingertip veil falling from a white satin Juliet cap. Her white prayerbook, gift of the bridegroom, was topped with a white orchid.

She was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister, Sally, as maid of honor; another sister, Mary Morse and Marcia Forsgren, Audrey Forsgren and Joanne Sandberg, bridesmaids; Kae and Kathleen Morse, twin sisters of the bride as junior bridesmaids. Their frocks were of white organdy over satin, with blue for the maid of honor; yellow for the first pair of bridesmaids and green for the second; and pink for the junior bridesmaids. Each attendant wore a white net Juliet cap and carried a fan-shaped bouquet of glads.

Philip Baumgardner, Youngsville, served Mr. Horner as best man and ushers were Paul Fitzgerald, Willis Munson, Charles Shaddy, Jr., Youngsville, and William Schumann, Warren.

The bride's mother was charming in a wine colored dress with black accessories and a pink rose corsage. Mrs. Horner wore a lovely black gown with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The reception followed at five o'clock in the church parlors, with a guest list of 150 from Jamestown, N. Y.; Girard, O.; Cyclone, Youngsville, Union City and Erie.

Two candelabra flanked the four-tiered wedding cake, which was topped with bridal figures in miniature.

For her wedding trip through New England, the bride chose black accessories and a white rose corsage with a checked suit. The newlyweds will be at home to friends at 222 North Main street, Youngsville, after September 8.

Graduate of Warren High School in 1950, the bride is employed by Sunray Electric, Inc., while Mr. Horner, graduate of Youngsville High in 1944, served several months overseas with the Infantry in World War II and is employed by the Anderson Baking Company.

The bride-elect was honored with pre-nuptial parties given by Jessie Cuthbertson, Marcia and Audrey Forsgren.

MR. AND MRS. JACK P. EGAN

A double ring ceremony performed at 2 p. m. September 2 in First Methodist church united in marriage Gloria Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Koebley, 108 Myrtle street, and Jack Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy D. Bean, 18 1/2 North Irvine street.

Rev. Wayne Furman heard the vows in a setting of palms, baskets of white gladioli and candelabra holding white tapers. Robert Dietsch sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

The bridal gown was styled with satin bodice, a round satin collar trimming the lace-edged yoke of marquisette, and marquisette used for the full skirt and train. Her fingertip veil was caught into a satin headband studded with seed pearls and a corsage of white roses centered her bouquet of white glads.

Attendants were Winifred Allen, maid of honor; three sisters of the bride as bridesmaids: Mrs. Kenneth Patchen, Warren; Mrs. Paul Dailey, Erie; and Mrs. Gale Cook, Wilmore, Ky. Their sleeveless frocks of white marquisette had tucked bodices, and high collars with velvet ties which matched their velvet sashes. Bouquets were of glads dyed to match their gowns: blue, orchid, yellow and rust. Half-hats of white marquisette also had velvet trim in matching shades.

The flower girl, Mary Lou Dailey, wore white tulle taffeta and matching headdress, her blue velvet sash matching the flowers in the small basket she carried. As ring bearer, David P. Dailey wore a navy Eton suit, starched white shirt and wine bow tie, with the rings placed on a pillow of white satin.

Dale Bean was best man for his brother and ushers were William MacLaren, Warren; Gerald Auclair, Buffalo, N. Y.; Robert Bean, Syracuse, N. Y.

A reception for 100 guests followed immediately in the church parlors, Mrs. Koebley receiving in a green crepe with velvet trim, green velvet hat and black accessories. Mrs. Bean wore a navy sheer, matching hat and white gloves, with red roses matching those of the bride's mother.

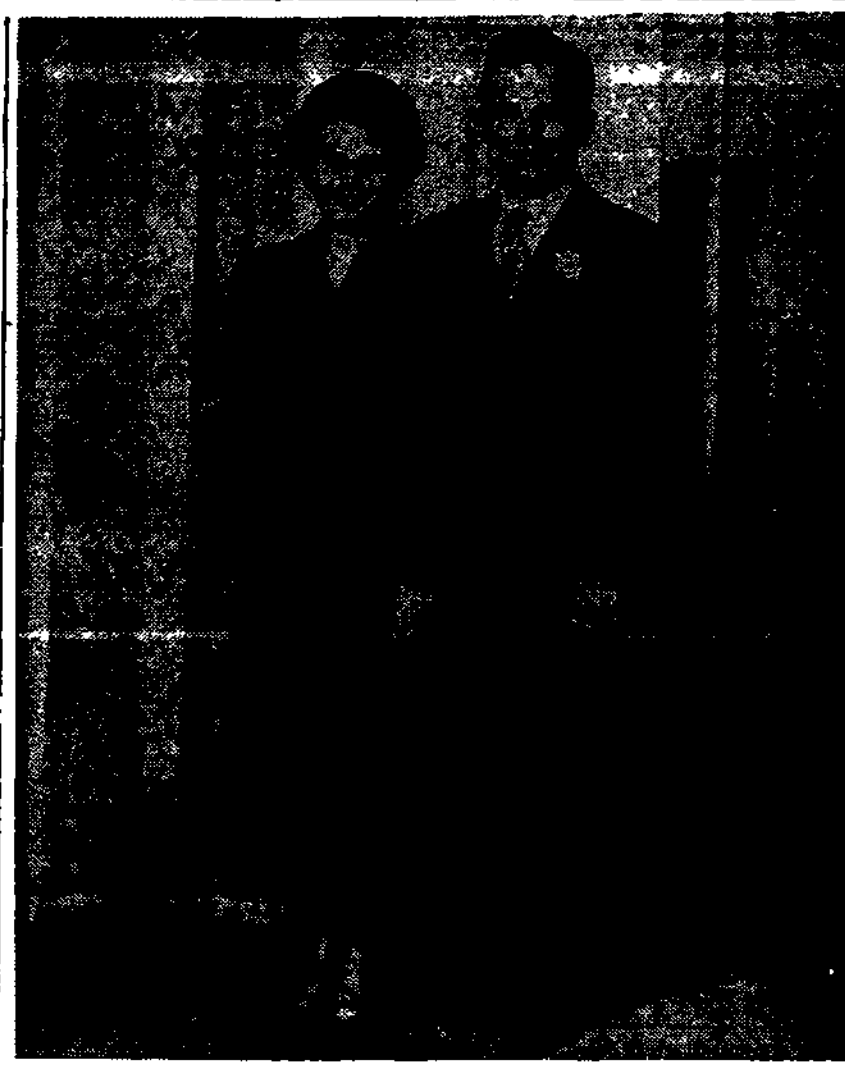

Silver candelabra held white tapers on the bride's table and the three-tiered cake was encrusted with fresh flowers and white satin bowknots. Presiding were Mrs. Robert Jensen and Mrs. Dale Bean.

Out of town guests where Mr. and Mrs. L. Ohmer and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ohmer, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Dailey, Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bean and family, Syracuse, N. Y.; Gerald Auclair, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eckel, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Cook and family, Wilmore, Ky.

The newlyweds will return September 6 from a wedding trip through southern Ohio and West Virginia and will be at home to friends at 9 Hazeltine street. For going away the bride chose a navy bolero suit, matching hat, red and white accessories.

Both young people are Warren High graduates, the bride having employment with the Warren Bank and Trust Company; the bridegroom attending Syracuse University.

Honoring the bride-elect have been Winifred Allen and Mrs. Jack Donovan, giving a personal shower; Mrs. William Hesch and Mrs. Simon Confer, miscellaneous show-

MR. AND MRS. EDGAR PETERSON

The marriage of Margaret Cooper and Edgar Peterson took place in the old stone church in Irvine at three o'clock Saturday afternoon with a reception following in the bride's home.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cooper, Irvine and Mr. Peterson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Peterson, Cobham Park road, Warren.

Performing the ceremony was the Rev. Frank A. Kehrl, Warren uncle of the bridegroom, and attending the couple were Charlotte Sandberg, Irvine, and Homer Peterson, brother of the bridegroom.

The newlyweds left later in the day for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada.

Carol Jean DeVore Is Catholic Daughters To Planning Open Church Install New Officers

Carol Jean DeVore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert DeVore, Jackson avenue extension, will observe open church for her marriage to Danford W. Lord, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lord, Washington Court House, O.

The ceremony will take place at three o'clock Saturday afternoon, September 9, in First Presbyterian church.

The bride-elect has been honored recently with two lovely parties. A miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. Rex Simpson, Youngsville, when a very pleasant evening was spent in playing games and contests, for which prizes were awarded the winners. The honored one received many nice gifts for her future home and a buffet luncheon was served. Those present were Sarah Cheney Bemus Point, N. Y.; Mrs. Fred DeVore, Lovena DeVore, North Warren; Mary Brink, Clarendon; Hilder Johnson, Helen Leonard, Mary Munksgard, Autumn Check, Dolly Naegehl, Gertrude Brown, Madolyn Geer, Betty and Sally Lannen, Mrs. A. L. DeVore, and the hostess.

Mrs. William Lord and Mrs. Ronald Thompson entertained at their home with a bridal shower. After presenting the bride-to-be with many beautiful gifts, the guests enjoyed a delicious luncheon served from a table prettily centered with a tiny bridal couple under an archway of flowers and tall white tapers in crystal candelabra.

"I GET SO NERVOUS I CAN HARDLY SIT STILL several days before my monthly period..."

Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

"Several days just before my period I usually get so nervous and tense, feel so restless, high-strung I want to cry—due to female functional monthly disturbances. So many of my girl friends troubled this way were getting wonderful relief from this distress by taking Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I decided to try it. And now I'd never be without it. I find that by taking this great medicine throughout the month it helps build up resistance against such pre-period nervous tension as well as against monthly pains of this nature."

"I also have a very dear middle-aged neighbor who finds Lydia Pinkham's Compound a wonderfully effective medicine to relieve hot flashes and nervous irritability—due to functional change of life. 'No wonder it's been called the woman's friend' for almost a century."

P. S. Pinkham's Compound tastes grand in a little water or fruit juice. Or you may prefer Lydia Pinkham's TABLETS with added iron.

Hal Boyle's Comment

By DON WHITEHEAD (For Hal Boyle)

With U. S. 27th Regiment, Korea—(P)—Combat is a cruel test of endurance, courage, and sanity which no man should be called on to endure more than once in his lifetime—and even that is too much. But many veterans of World War II are facing the test again in Korea.

Most of them went into the last war as youths—fresh from high school or the college campus. Somewhere between Pearl Harbor and the end of the war they lost that youth. They were young-old men.

When peace came they found they had learned a trade that had no market at home. The only employer who placed any value on ability to kill the enemy was the army which had trained them. And so they stayed in the army.

These are the men who form the real backbone of the American Army fighting to hold off the North Korean Reds until a United Nations powerhouse is assembled behind them. They hold the key spots in companies and battalions and regiments and divisions—these young-old men of World War II.

As examples there are Capt. Earl W. Buchanan of Newport, Vt. and Maj. Harry K. Hauge of Lexington, Ky.

Buchanan is a lean, thin-faced man who smiles quickly even when his face is drawn with weariness and his eyes are red from lack of sleep. He fought with the 45th Infantry Division in Sicily, through the rugged mountains of Italy and across southern France—19 long months of combat.

Then one day at Strasbourg on the Rhine a piece of shrapnel from a German tank shell slapped him on the head. He woke up to find himself a prisoner in a German aid station.

The Germans took Buchanan in-

Warren Merchants Trim National Forge Twice To Win the City Senior Baseball Championship

Warren Merchants trimmed the National Forge twice over the weekend to win the 1950 senior city baseball championship. It was the first time in many a season that one team has been able to take the mythical championship away from the Forge. The closest any previous team has come in recent sports history was 10 years ago when a series between the N. F. O. and the Warren Independents ended in a tie.

The Merchants left no doubt about their right to win the title, however. They were one game down when they tangled with the Forge Saturday afternoon at the State Hospital diamond, but went right to work to fashion a 7-2 triumph to even the count. Then in the third and deciding game at Wilder Field yesterday afternoon, the Merchants splurged for four runs in the eighth, after seven scoreless innings, to win, 4-2 and take the series.

Southpaw Dave Lopez carried the Merchants to their triumph Saturday, with Keith Vesling on the mound for the Forge. Don Gheres pitched the Labor Day game for the Merchants, and was opposed by Dean Whitaker.

In Saturday's game, the Merchants counted two runs in the second on a double by Don Sharp, a single by Red Hand, a wild pitch and a ground-out by O'Shura. The Forge tied it up with two tallies in the third when Johnny Castagnino slammed a round tripper and Gerry Vesling and Emmy Morrison clouted singles. The Merchants went ahead in the seventh with a single tally on a triple by Red Hand and a ground-out by O'Shura. The Merchants put the clincher on the game with four big tallies in the eighth. Bill Brown walloped a tremendous ground rule triple; Dick Reed and Tom Juliano walked; the Forge committed two misplay; and O'Shura singled.

The Forge drew first scoring blood in yesterday's game, getting their two markers in the fourth frame on a double by Gerry Vesling and singles by Keith Vesling and Jack Baker.

Once again the eighth inning was lucky for the Merchants. Bob Hammerbeck drew a walk; a Forge error, a single by Bill Brown and a walk for Juliano produced one run and left the bases loaded. Monk Murphy then came through with a double in the clutch to plate three runs and sew up the game.

Warren High Varsity Gridders Drub 2nds In Intra-Squad Tilt

Warren High Dragon varsity, clad in "blue" jerseys, handed the seconds a 52 to 0 whitewashing, in the annual Labor Day intra-squad game played at War Memorial Field Monday afternoon.

The "blues", under Head Coach J. B. Leidig, scored 13 points, in each quarter, while the "whites" under the supervision of Joe Massa, were unable to cross the line once in the four periods.

In the opening of the first quarter the seconds, unable to make any gain, punted, and the varsity made to two first downs to bring them to the 14 yard line.

The "whites" were penalized five yards to bring the ball to the nine yard line. Louie Berardi went for three more yards through the line and Bob Foley went the remaining six for a TD on a fake lateral play.

Berardi scored the extra point around left end.

Shanshala kicked off for the Leidigmen, and again the seconds were unable to gain and punted. The "whites" made two first downs, but were held for four downs and the "whites" took over on their own 26 yard line.

Then on an attempted punt the varsity recovered a fumble on the 10 yard line, and Shanshala ripped around right end for the touchdown. Sigworth failed to score the EP.

Going into the second period, Wright and Bevevino each made first downs to put the seconds on the 20 yard line. But a pass by Bevevino was intercepted by Lee Weidmaier, who trampled 85 yards to cross into pay dirt. Berardi scored the extra point on a line plunge.

Foley kicked off to the seconds, and again they were forced to punt out of danger. Three first downs brought the varsity to within scoring distance once more on the eight yard line.

Bonace picked up two yards and Foley tossed an incomplete pass before Deane Vesling went around right end for the TD, making the score 26 to 0 at half time. An attempted drop kick for the EP failed.

The seconds kicked off in the beginning of the second half and Foley returned it 20 yards. Vesling picked up 10 more for a first down and Shanshala broke loose around right end to go 50 yards for fifth TD. The field goal for the extra point failed.

A second tally in the third quarter came after Berardi and Shanshala made 18 and 15 yard sprints for two first downs to bring the pigskin to the 33 yard line. An incomplete pass was thrown in the first play, then Shriver tore loose with a 33 yard run to touch pay dirt once more.

A pass from Shanshala to Eames made the extra point building the score up to 39 to 0.

About half way in the final period Shanshala hit Sigworth with a 32 yard pass for the seventh tally and Dan Jackson plunged for the extra point.

The seconds, with Weidmaier and Shriver moved into their backfield, were still unable to gain and lost possession of the ball. Shanshala went 23 yards and Vesling 12 for two first downs to bring the ball to the 10 yard line, from where Berardi scored for the final points of the game, ending 52 to 0.

In the preliminary game between the second teams of Briggs' squad and Passaro's and Jewell's squad, the latter group won 12 to 0. Tom White made both of the tallies for the winners.

A second prelim matched the first teams of the same coaches, and again Passaro and Jewell boys won, 7 to 0. Toby Shea threw the TD pass to Ron Trawick, and also scored the extra point.

Mad Midwestern Mortician Made Horse Racing History

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Horse racing probably would not exist as the big business it is today if it had not been for a disgruntled midwestern undertaker in the Gay Nineties.

Horse racing might not be in existence at all and certainly would not be a multi-billion dollar business had it not been for Almon Strowger. Prior to 1908 wagering in this country was in the hands of book-makers, for the most part.

Parimutuel betting had been invented by M. Oller, a Paris merchant, in 1872.

But, opposed by the bookies, of course, that system found small favor here until 1908.

Col. Matt Winn discovered that although gambling was prohibited, pari-mutuel betting was not. So, on Derby Day, 1908, pari-mutuel betting was introduced to the big time in the United States.

There were two things wrong with the system. It could be monkey-witted. It was too slow.

The obvious answer was an apparatus that would remove the temptation to phinagle by automatically recording all bets and calculating the odds speedily.

It remained for a Baltimorean, Henry L. Straus, to work out the method by which bets are electrically recorded, added and displayed in jig time.

Straus' machine depends to a large extent on equipment operating on the principle of the automatic dial telephone.

Where does Almon Strowger, the mortician, come in?

Strowger, an early telephone subscriber in Kansas City, became irked when his business began falling off.

People were still dying and Strowger was convinced that he could do as nice a job of laying them out and patting them in the face with a shovel as his competitor, whose business picked up in inverse ratio to the fall in the Strowger fortunes.

Strowger discovered that his competitor, an unmarried man, was keeping company with a telephone operator and immediately jumped to the conclusion that she was shifting telephone calls from him to his competitor.

Strowger could never prove his suspicions but got so all-fired mad at the whole business that, with an old-fashioned collar box, some pins and a lead pencil, he invented the dial telephone which eliminated the operator.

Why couldn't Almon Strowger have minded his own business and not started all the trouble?

Mrs. Keller Fires a Hole-in-One at the Local Golf Course

Mrs. Melvin G. Keller, 16 Jackson avenue, fired a hole-in-one at the Conevango Valley Country Club golf course Saturday.

It was the only hole-in-one registered so far this season at the local course, and marked the third time in the history of the local club that a woman has ever accomplished the feat. The first two holes-in-one are credited to Mrs. Harold Banghart.

Mrs. Keller was touring the Conevango Valley greens with Mrs. Grace Fisher and Creed Erickson when she put her tee shot in the cup on Number Seven. It is a 150-yard par three hole. Mrs. Keller was using a No. 5 iron at the time.

Conevango Club golfers were kept busy over the weekend with tournament play. Mrs. Marie Hamilton and Bob Blair shot 88 for the low gross score on a two-ball mixed foursome event Labor Day. Low net for the day was a 64 posted by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeFrees.

Other low nets included: Mrs. John Deusing and Dr. Wallace Sedwick, 70; Mrs. Robert Walsh and Pete Juliano, 70; Dr. and Mrs. Folmer Yerg, 71; Mrs. Stan Korb and Larry Korb, 72; Mrs. Hamilton and Bob Blair, Mrs. Hugh

IS DOING NICELY
Friends will be glad to know that Mrs. Katherine Randall, 107 Jackson avenue, is convalescing nicely following an operation at Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh, where she has been a patient for the past six weeks. Her sister, Mrs. Leo L. Gleese, 2 Redwood street, has been in Pittsburgh with her.

FIREMEN FIND FIRE
Not content with having alarms called in, Warren firemen looked for and found a little work on Sunday when one of their number, returning luncheon plates to Beebe's Restaurant, on Pennsylvania avenue, west, discovered an overheated refrigerator motor. The emergency truck rolled out to the eating place at 12:46 p. m. and firemen disconnected the motor. There was no damage.

ONE ACCIDENT
State police report only one accident over the weekend. Cars operated by H. J. Perry, of Sheffield, and Dr. William Hawk, of Cleveland, O., collided on Route 6 about midway between Tiona and Sheffield at midnight Saturday. According to the police report, a drunk staggered into the highway in front of Perry, proceeding west, and in swerving to miss the inebriate, Perry side-swiped the Hawk car. Damage was estimated at $200 to each vehicle and there were no injuries.

EMERGENCIES TREATED
Few emergency cases came to the attention of Warren General Hospital over the weekend. Robert Foley, 126 Conewango avenue, was treated yesterday for bruises of the muscles of the lower left side, sustained in the football game at War Memorial Field. He was discharged following strapping. Dennis Bowser, 3, of Warren RD. 3, was treated for lacerations of the right knee on Saturday when he fell at home while playing and cut the knee on broken glass. Two sutures and five clips were applied and he was discharged.

(From Page Four)
ter on the Journal expects Bill Chiricuzio, veteran high school guard, to develop into one of the best linemen in the section. Bill is not a big boy, but he is smart, a scrapper and an excellent blocker, and player to watch when Corry opens the season against the Dragons next Saturday. . . . The St. Mary's Independent, a weekly newspaper started several months ago, did not publish last week. The following statement was issued subscribers on a post card: "Your copy of 'The Independent' will not be delivered this week. Due to unavoidable circumstances publication may be suspended for another week or two, and possibly indefinitely." . . . Jimmy McKnight, manager of the Personal Finance Co., in Erie, formerly of this city where he held a similar position with the firm, has been named to head division C of the Erie "Y" membership campaign which will be held September 18 through 22. . . . The Corry Journal says it is rumored that a group of Warren people have been in that city recently making inquiries and expressing interest in the present Corry Hospital site and buildings for possible use as a nursing home.

But Harry Hauge is fighting talon was in the "howling alley"—the valley down which the Reds were trying to fight their way to Taegu. There is nothing unusual about the story of Buchanan and Hauge. There are scores of others like them who are welding this army into a fighting machine. But it's the Buchanans and the Hauges who have given this army the hard inner core of experience which will mean the difference between victory and defeat. The young-old men of World War II are carrying a cruel burden—but they carry it well.
